Dear Mrs. Herman:

Thanks for your kind letter forwarded by Dell.

I am sorry I don't have time for an exhaustive reply because I am behind schedule on three more books.

I think the photographic evidence I have discovered and other people are now working on may confirm what you believe. I am satisfied my own writing (expecially in WHITEWASH II) proves it.

The first man arrested was not identified; nothing more was said than I repeat in WHITEWASH.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
